

Privacy Policy

AIS Energy Pty Ltd (“AIS Energy”, “we”, “our”, “us”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting personal information that you share with us.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect limited personal data when you:

- Contact us via email or web forms
- Request information about our services
- Subscribe to updates or newsletters

Information collected may include your name, organisation, email address, phone number, and country of residence.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your information only to:

- Respond to enquiries or service requests
- Communicate regarding projects, partnerships, or proposals
- Maintain internal business records and compliance obligations

We do not sell, rent, or share your information with third parties, except as required by law or when necessary to deliver requested services.

3. Data Security

We apply reasonable administrative and technical measures to protect information from unauthorised access, disclosure, or misuse.

4. Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies or analytics tools to monitor performance and user engagement. These do not identify individuals and can be disabled in your browser settings.

5. Your Rights

You may request access, correction, or deletion of your personal information by contacting us at:
